Key Activities

Press Conference:

On 22 September, at a joint press conference, the IEC and ECC informed about the MoU and Regulations for the joint committee. They also shared a joint press release during the press conference. The press releases express commitments of both IEC and ECC to respect and not to interfere in legal mandates of each other. They also expressed an assurance to conduct transparent, just, fair and impartial election nationwide. Both commissions shall also consider the nation interests while performing its mandate and implementing activities. They will perform their mandates independently and will not be influenced by any pressure or domestic and external requests, press release said.

Call Centre 132:

On 28 September, ECC Chair Mrs. Zuhra Bayan Shinwari in the presence of Deputy Chair Mr. Din Mohammad Azimi inaugurated the ECC Call Centre. Staffs have been hired and trained to operate the Call Centre. Callers can call at 132 between 8 am till 6pm and ask questions related to the complaints commissions. The call Centre is being promoted through Public Service Announcements (PSAs), newspaper adverts, billboards and social media.

Consultation and Coordination Meetings with Stakeholders:

As a part of ongoing efforts to inform, engage and consult with electoral stakeholders, ECC is organized a series of consultation meetings with various groups in Kabul and other provinces.

- On 23 September, Consultation meeting with the electoral stakeholders was held in Kabul where 97 representatives from political parties, civil society, religious scholars and government agencies participated. During the meeting ECC commissioners briefed the stakeholders about the mandate of ECC, complaints registration and adjudication process and preparedness of ECC. It was an interactive meeting where the participants shared their concerns and feedback to ECC.
- On 19 September, ECC organized a consultation meeting with representative from youth and women organizations. ECC Chair Ms. Shinwari encouraged women and youth to exercise their rights and participate in the upcoming elections in all provinces and timely register complaints and objections with evidence at provincial and central ECC. She emphasized that ECC will fulfil its legal mandate with full commitment.
- On 18th September, ECC organized a consultation meeting with representative from people with disabilities. Representatives from 10 organizations, including the Ministry of Labor, Social Affairs, Martyrs and people with disabilities were present in the meeting.

Commissioners Visit to Provinces:

ECC Commissioners visited several provinces to consult with media and provincial stakeholders. Chairperson Zuhra Bayan Shinwari and Spokesperson Dr. Mohammad Qasim Elayasi visited Herat, where they interacted with political parties, media and civil society groups. They briefed about ECC's legal mandate and urged everyone to be the part of electoral process. Similarly, Commissioner Sayed Qutbuddin Roidar visited Nangahar province, where he held meetings with security agencies, youth and women representative and media. He reiterated ECC's commitment to ensure electoral justice in upcoming elections and also explained about the complaints registration and adjudication process.
